Dear Gary:

Sorry I haven't written sooner, but I was traveling quite a bit this month. I have wanted to express my gratitude for the tremendous programs you provided the attendees at the Sixth District Progress Meeting and Women's Conference.

The portrayal of John and Abigail Adams on Wednesday's program was interesting and educating and entertaining all at the same time. Victoria Graham's portrayal of Abigail was both charming and delightful. You captured the true meaning of "Lovers and Patriots". How refreshing to revisit history through love letters that belonged to the Adams.

The Friday program of Clarence Darrow was amazing. All the delegates commented on how you were able to make them believe they were in a courtroom, in a living room, or in the mind of Clarence Darrow. All the passions of Mr. Darrow for social injustice, labor issues, etc. were crystal clear in your performance.

When we are choosing a program, it is hard to imagine the results. Your program was beyond my expectations and I thank you for sharing your energy and your knowledge with our attendees.

In Solidarity

Fraternally yours,

Joseph F. Lohman
