To Whom It May Concern:

I recently had the distinct pleasure of introducing "Mr. Clarence Darrow" to the Judicial Conference of the State Bar of Michigan at our judicial conference on September 28, 2007, in Grand Rapids, Michigan. Gary Anderson, a nationally recognized portrayer of Mr. Darrow, presented his program Clarence Darrow: A Judicial Perspective to the executive committee and the other attendees of our conference.

We found ourselves transported back in time and became eyewitnesses to the creation of new law in the presence of America's greatest criminal defense attorney.

This detailed analysis of four pivotal trials in Darrow's career was presented with great passion and attention to historical accuracy. The program was fair, balanced and captured the actual feel of the adversarial process, encompassing the court dynamics, points of law, the unique views of the prosecution and defense strategies and the judge's trial management efforts. The information on the judges' public and private lives was particularly fascinating.

The program was an intriguing blend of both human tragedy and the elevation of the human spirit through the majesty of the law. More than one judge in the audience found it surprisingly moving. Immediately afterward, as well as later, many of those in attendance congratulated me on including the program as part of our meeting.

I found the program to be informative, thought provoking and entertaining. It caused me to reflect on how I manage my court room and the attorneys who argue their cases before me. I whole-heartedly recommend Clarence Darrow: A Judicial Perspective to anyone considering this remarkable program for your judicial conference or event.

If you have any questions please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,
