Dear Mr. Anderson,

It is a great pleasure for me to thank and commend you for your portrayal of Williams Jennings Bryan in three performances for the Pennsylvania Bar Institute on July 6, 7 and 8, 2010.

Although our legal history has consigned Mr. Bryan to relative obscurity, your compelling performance brought the man and the issues of his time to the forefront. Watching you depict this larger-than-life lion of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries, all were reminded that we are not the first generation to face seemingly insurmountable problems that test our moral and ethical sinews.

The audiences in our three locations: Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Mechanicsburg, praised your work and genuinely appreciated the examination of this great lawyer and the challenges he faced. Thank you again for your moving depiction. It was a pleasure to watch your performance and it is even more pleasurable to give you our heartiest recommendation.
