RE: Clarence Darrow's Judicial Perspective program at our Limited Court Conference

Dear Clarence, I mean Gary:

I wanted to take the time to let you know how much I enjoyed working with you Thursday, October 2, 2008, at the judicial conference here in Helena. Not only was it enjoyable, it was also very much a learning experience.

As you know, I read the part of Judge John Raulston in the Scopes 'Monkey' Trial as one of the participants in your re-creation of four of the most notable trials of Darrow's career and in American history. This exploration of these judges legacy was most welcome.

Shortly after I returned to my office after our work together, I was moved to send you an email and expressed then to you as I do now. I truly appreciated working with you. It was a very, very worthwhile experience. I would enjoy the experience again. It was a lot of fun and I also learned a great deal.

When the afternoon was over there were more than a few moist eyes; for a judge this was a very moving experience. I would recommend your program to anyone that has an interest in American history and especially to any American jurist. Your portrayal of Clarence Darrow is right on!!!

Sincerely,

Wallace A. Jewell
