Re: Ohio Judicial College, Probate Judges Association, June 10, 2008

Dear Judge Anderson:

Thank you for your work as an educator/presenter at the Probate Judges Association course at the McKinley Grand Hotel - Canton on June 10, 2008.

Enclosed is a copy of the evaluation summary for your records. It was a pleasure to work with you on this project. I look forward to working together again soon on another Judicial College program.

Please contact me if you have any questions or comments. Again, thank you for your valuable contribution to this course.

Very truly yours,

M. Christy Tull
Education Manager

The evaluation summary from the Ohio Probate Judges Association Seminar for the Clarence Darrow Judicial Perspective: Ethics and Professionalism program presented by Gary Anderson

Our program received 1 CLE credits for a 1 hour presentation. 2 hours would be 2 credits.

We also received and were rated:

1. The highest 'EXCELLENT' rating for Presentation out of 14 presenters. 11 of 14 presenters were Judges including one Magistrate. 3 were civilians and educators
2. Was rated number 3 as 'MOST VALUABLE' on a list of 12 topics / aspects found by attendee's. (After Case Law review and Panel Discussions)
3. The Darrow program had more favorable written comments at 8 than any other presenter. The closest was 4.
