

LAW OFFICES
O'NEAL, BROWN & CLARK
A PROFESSIONAL CORPORATION

MANLEY F. BROWN
JOHN CHRISTOPHER CLARK
PHILIP M. BROWN
JAROME E. GAUTREAUX

JAMES M. WOOTAN
OF COUNSEL

H.T. O'NEAL, JR.
(1924-1983)

MACON OFFICE:
SUITE 1001, AMERICAN FEDERAL BUILDING
544 MULBERRY STREET
MACON, GEORGIA 31201-2774

(478) 742-8981
(478) 743-5035 FAX
(866) 285-9923

WWW.OBCLAWFIRM.COM

June 1, 2009

ATLANTA OFFICE:
SUITE 320, ONE DECATUR TOWN CENTER
150 EAST PONCE DE LEON AVENUE
DECATUR, GEORGIA 30030

(866) 285-9923

PLEASE REPLY TO:
MACON

To Whom It May Concern:

As President of the Georgia Trial Lawyers Association, I had the distinct pleasure to attend an excellent and thought-provoking program, Clarence Darrow's Search for Justice, presented by Mr. Gary Anderson as Clarence Darrow, at our 2009 Annual Seminar in Atlanta. Mr. Anderson's performance as Clarence Darrow is truly inspiring and unforgettable. He delivers lessons on law, justice, ethics, morality and human nature, during his performance as Clarence Darrow.

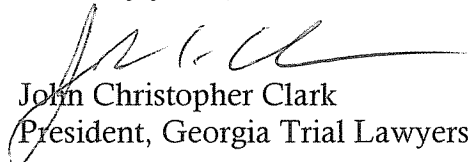

Each and every person with whom I have spoken and who attended Mr. Anderson's presentation commented on how inspired and educated they were by Mr. Anderson's presentation. His presentation received nothing but the highest praise.

Mr. Anderson's presentation and depiction of Clarence Darrow, especially the depiction of Darrow's love and respect for the law, was a wonderful reminder to all lawyers of their importance to our society and to the profession of law. Mr. Anderson's program is an inspirational opportunity for legal education and should not be missed.

I am happy to recommend Mr. Anderson's program and his presentation as Clarence Darrow to any law school, inn of court, or other group interested in outstanding and inspirational legal education.

With best regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

John Christopher Clark
President, Georgia Trial Lawyers Association

JCC/sdt